DAY 1049

Russia / Ukraine Conflict

Dead admonition

Recently, there have been an increasing number of terrorist attacks in Asian cities, including killing people with knives and hitting people with cars. If calculated based on the population ratio, gun violence is more severe than in the United States. However, on New Year's Day this year, a car bombing occurred in the casino city of Las Vegas. After nearly a week of investigation, the FBI confirmed that it was not a murder or murder, nor a terrorist attack, nor a revenge for social dissatisfaction or action; but remonstrance. The deceased was not someone who opposed or hated Trump, but his loyal supporter. He opposes the war in Ukraine, but not against Russia's invasion, but against U.S. aid to Ukraine.

He believes that the United States has too many things to deal with at home and should not spend a lot of resources in distant places. Trump previously said that he would end the war between Russia and Ukraine within 24 hours. His intention was not to spend a lot of resources overseas. Therefore, in mid-2024, the EU once became Ukraine's largest military aid country. However, recently it seems that Trump's attitude is not as tough as before. He seems to be in no rush to end the war within 24 hours. He only said that ending the war is one of his top priorities. The person who remonstrated with death was Matthew Livesberger, a member of the U.S. Special Forces who suffered from post-traumatic stress disorder (Post-Traumatic stress disorder). He was deployed to Afghanistan twice and was a member of the Green Berets. On New Year's Day, he drove Musk's electric farm truck (Cybertruck), which contained a large number of fuel tanks and explosives, and exploded outside the Trump Hotel in Las Vegas as a suicide note. He believed that the car was sturdy and would only cause an explosion but not a large number of deaths. As a result, only seven people were injured. He first committed suicide by swallowing the gun and then detonated it with a delayed bomb.

His suicide note stated: This is not a terrorist attack, but a wake-up call. Americans only pay attention to spectacle and violence. Nothing gets my point across like a stunning display of fireworks and dynamite. The United States must unite behind Trump and Tesla boss Musk. Please wait and see how Trump will face this damning remonstrance.
